MENTORING

Southeast Regional Conference
May 30–June 1, 2012
Tampa, Florida

Special Conference Mentoring Program Opportunity

Looking for someone to advise on your career path? Have a difficult personnel situation at work? Need to find someone to help you think through elements of a significant project? Want someone to review your resume? Whatever your issue, consider signing up for a one-on-one mentoring opportunity at the Southeast Regional Conference.

Members of the Professional Development Mentoring Team will be onsite at the Conference in Tampa. Each member of the team has significant experience in higher education information technology service, management, and leadership. Each has agreed to be matched with two attendees in a professional development mentoring capacity during the conference. These opportunities are limited and can be scheduled for 30-60 minutes during the conference. Links to the mentors’ professional profiles are below.

Please contact Lida Larsen (llarsen@educause.edu) if you would like to take advantage of this opportunity to talk with someone about your career or a specific work situation during the conference. Please include your first and second mentor choice or otherwise indicate the topic area of interest.

Deadline: Tuesday, May 22
