Merge Ahead: Library-IT Organizations in the Liberal Arts

What do you think of when you think of merged organizations?

Participate in our interactive word cloud
https://answergarden.ch/372472
Merge Ahead: Library-IT Organizations in the Liberal Arts

Dave Smollen, Vice President for Libraries and Information Technology, Hamilton College

Niranjan P. Davray, Director of Information Technology Services, Kenyon College

Lisa Forrest, Director of Research & Instructional Design, Hamilton College

Heather Woods, Director of Research & Instructional Support, Wellesley College
What are some issues to consider when merging--and how might these be addressed before the merger takes place?
What are some ideas of “best practices” for reconciling Library and IT cultures?
How do merged organizations allow for innovation within the institution?
What are examples of natural working affinities within Library and IT organizations that have been uncovered in the merger process?
ADVICE
What are some key takeaways from today’s talk that you might bring back to your organization?
QUESTIONS?